Jackson Elementary's Annual Book Fair Boosts Funds for Library and LaAmistad.

Atlanta, GA: Jackson Elementary's Annual Book Fair, sponsored by Scholastic, officially kicks off on Tuesday afternoon, October 14th at 4:00. Included in this tradition is a fun family BBQ, hosted by Lone Star Ranch, for Jackson families.

The event takes place at Jackson's Main Campus within its library. Families are encouraged to purchase books from an impressive assortment with a percentage of monies donated back to the school for the funding of new books, supplies and equipment for Jackson's library and media center. Funds are also allocated to help purchase books to supplement specific in-class studies.

In tandem with this school fund raiser, the library is also encouraging attendees to contribute to One for Books to help supply books and other learning materials to one of Jackson's community Partners, LaAmistad. LaAmistad is an after-school, volunteer tutorial program provided at Peachtree Presbyterian Church for Hispanic citizens.

*Warren T. Jackson Elementary School, a member of the Atlanta Public Schools System, has earned recognition as a National Blue Ribbon School, a Georgia School of Excellence, and an International Baccalaureate (IB) World School. Located in the Buckhead section of Atlanta, Jackson Elementary focuses on a progressive balance of top-tier academics together with advancing a child's character education. Through a variety of programs and events (often philanthropic and ecological in nature), Jackson students are encouraged to become inquirers both in the classroom and in the world at large.
