Warren T. Jackson's Kindergarten Shows Kindness to Animals.

Atlanta, GA: Warren T. Jackson Elementary School's Primary Center was the scene for a special after-school meeting of its Roots and Shoots Kindergarten members last week. There, 25 children presented bag-fulls of collected cloth towels and paper towel and toilet paper rolls to Mafia Montaldo, area representative from the Atlanta Humane Society. Towels are used to make beds, clean animals and make them feel safe and warm; paper rolls are animal-pleasing toys, especially for chewing!

Ms. Montaldo brought along an adorable friend to assist during her speech to encourage children to volunteer at local shelters, spay and neuter pets and always adopt animals in-need.

Warren T. Jackson Elementary School, a member of the Atlanta Public Schools System, has earned recognition as a National Blue Ribbon School, a Georgia School of Excellence, and an International Baccalaureate (IB) World School. Located in the Buckhead section of Atlanta, Jackson Elementary focuses on a progressive balance of top-tier academics together with advancing a child's character education. Through a variety of programs and events (often philanthropic and ecological in nature), Jackson students are encouraged to become inquirers both in the classroom and in the world at large.
